Anyone may take the training, with their priest's endorsement. Eucharistic visitors are authorized to take consecrated elements to members of their congregations who are too ill or infirm to attend church. The training is required to be licensed by the bishop for this ministry. The Rev. Ed Erb, rector at Grace, will lead the training. He can be contacted via email.

Bread Collection Update

As you know, St. Paul's started a second collection on Sundays to provide money to buy bread for the Montrose Mobile Food Pantry once a month. We expected the cost to be about $250 a month and that has been our goal. The monthly distribution takes place on the second Friday of each month. Thank you for your generosity. The recipients of the Food Pantry services are depending on us.

Social night is at Tom & Barb Undercoffler's Hobo Camp on Friday, September 28 at 6:00 p.m. Come dressed as a hobo- no fancy clothes please! We will be sitting around a campfire enjoying food, fun, and fellowship so bring a dish to pass and your own chair. We will provide hot dogs, beans, buns, s'mores and the cooking utensils. We hope to see you at our campfire at 506 Melhuish Road, New Milford. R.S.V.P. 570-278-7470

A St. Paul's History Class Scheduled

On Thursday, October 11th at six o'clock, Dan Graham will present a discussion on the 180 year history of St. Paul's Church. The presentation will be through the Montrose Area Adult School and the cost is $5.00.

Registration will be handled through the Adult School. Registration can be accepted at the door on the day of the class. The discussion will be at St. Paul's.

Morning Prayer

If we want Morning Prayer at Meadow View to continue, we need some helpers. Esther and Jane have served in this ministry faithfully for years, but they need some volunteers to share the joy of reading and singing with the residents on the first Tuesday of each month. We begin prayer by 9:30 am and are finished by around 10:15 am.

This monthly event is something the residents really appreciate. It's informal and gives us an opportunity to reach out in a meaningful way to our shut in neighbors. Please prayerfully consider how you may help. If you cannot commit to once a month, we could work out a yearly schedule with several volunteers. Peggy, who works with the residents in the activities room, is a delight and very helpful with our program. She'll welcome you!

Please contact Esther if you would like to be part of this fulfilling ministry.

For those who are ill or have requested our prayers: Margaret Burgh, Brad Darde, Rick Arrowsmith, Becky Stasko, Kathy Warriner, Joe & Esther Welden, Janice, K'ann, Pat, Charles, Charlotte Eckert, Alice Wood, Jean Williams, Charlotte Ellis, Esther McLaughlin, Susan Kamarauskas, Jeanette, Jeanne & Bart Conklin & Steve Kupscznk.

Vestry Highlights, September 13, 2018

- We read Acts 15:1-11 and discussed how we put demands to conform on people rather than be inclusive.
- The signed gas lease has been recorded at the Courthouse by Cabot and St. Paul's received our lease check.
- We will hold a "Christmas event" for the recovery community on Sunday, December 9 at 2 p.m. This will probably be coffee and dessert and a chance for fellowship.
- We will host a luncheon on Sunday, October 7 from 12:30-2 p.m. for the visitors to Artists' Tour weekend. Proceeds will go to a designated ministry.
- We will include two weekly prayers in the Prayers of the People during the Eucharist. One will be for those touched by addiction and the other for our search process for a rector.
- The Vestry accepted an audit report from Vicki Strock for 2011. Because the contract has not been fulfilled for audits through 2017, we voted to terminate the contract and seek a new auditor.
- Our next Vestry meeting will be rescheduled to Wednesday, October 10.

It's that time of year again!

The Country Store will be held on Saturday, December 1 and we're gearing up to make it a success. Please start to bring in any items for the New and Nearly New table. Look through your closets and drawers for those forgotten items that you can part with. We gladly accept trinkets large and small, jewelry, ornaments, house wares, linens of the decorative variety, and things unusual and different to name a few. Your "cast off" may be someone else's special "find".

We will need all hands on deck to help prepare for and work at the Country Store. You don't need an invitation—just jump in where you feel you'd like to participate. All proceeds go to local ministries. It's a worthy cause so invite your friends to work with us. We can all have fun together.

I am trying to get a Bus trip organized to go to the Sight and Sound Theater in Lancaster Pa. I need to know how many people are interested in going, so I can purchase the tickets. I am hoping for a Friday in the middle of October. If they are sold out, I will try for a Thursday. I need a number before I can begin, I will let you know the date as soon as I get it and then I will need a commitment. The tickets are 69.00 for Friday and 59.00 for Thursday. Please email me by Sept 6th if you are interested. The name of the show is Jesus, and if you have ever been to Sight and Sound you know how magnificent it is. God Bless

Montrose Mobile Pantry Update:

Since last November, the people of Saint Paul's Church have donated $250 every month to the Montrose Mobile Pantry to purchase bread as part of the charity's monthly food giveaway.

Last Friday at the September distribution, 249 Susquehanna County households received food.

That means 136 children, 235 adults and 186 seniors in need were helped in a very real way by the generous members of this church.

Thank you, my St. Paul's family.

Several of us also volunteer to help with the distribution.

We have seen firsthand how much this very special program matters to those we serve.

Gratefully, Nancy Dooling

Ordination and Consecration of Bishop Nichols

On Saturday, September 15th, the Reverend Kevin D. Nichols became the 9th Bishop of the Episcopal Diocese of Bethlehem. Rev. Michael Curry, Presiding Bishop of the Episcopal Church, Bishop Sean Rowe, Provincial Bishop of the Diocese of Bethlehem, five other bishops, a choir of 80 and almost all of the clergy of the Diocese, along with about 500 people, presided over or witnessed the ordination. The event took place in the First Presbyterian Church of Allentown, which was large enough to accommodate that number of people. The total service took about three hours and everyone was smiling when it was over.

Coats for the Community Distribution Kicks Off

On Friday, the Coats for the Community Program kicked off at St. Paul's. The one-day distribution matched the Montrose Mobile Food Pantry distribution at the Methodist Church. The other distribution sites include: Christ Church, Susquehanna, Christ Church, Forest City, Elk Lake School, Blue Ridge School, St. Mark's in New Milford and back to St. Paul's in December when Interfaith has their Christmas Dinner distribution. Donations of warm winter coats are being accepted.
