Final Call!!

Bishop Kevin Nichols will visit St. Paul's on Sunday, March 24. We are honored to be one of the first churches on the Bishop's list of visitations

If anyone is interested in confirmation or being received into the Episcopal Church by the Bishop on that date, please let Lynne know ASAP so that Fr. John can arrange for training in preparation for the event. Any questions? Please contact Fr. John at frjohn@ptd.net .

Ever Wondered What Lent Is or What Those Ashes Mean?

Lent is the six-week period leading up to Easter. It is one of the most important times of year for many Christians around the world. Lent is generally seen as a time of solemn preparation for the observance of the death of Jesus on Good Friday and His resurrection on Easter. From its start on Ash Wednesday until its end on Easter Sunday, Lent is a traditional time for fasting and prayer. Many follow a routine of giving something up or adding something positive (such as Bible reading) to their daily life. Just as we carefully prepare for events such as weddings or birthdays in our personal lives, Lent invites us to make our minds and hearts ready for remembering Jesus' life, death and resurrection. Ashes imposed on the forehead (which is optional) symbolize human mortality and a call to repentance, i.e., to live according to God's ways.

Lenten Bible Study Begins

As of yesterday, Ash Wednesday, we have entered into the penitential season of Lent. Next Tuesday, March 12, we will begin our Lenten series of Bible study.

Please join us for any or all parts of each Tuesday evening in Lent. We begin our evening with reading the Stations of the Cross in the sanctuary at 5 p.m. This is a beautiful tradition of reading, quiet reflection, and prayer as we use the carved images of Christ's passion on the church walls to focus our thoughts. At 5:30 p.m we sit down to a simple supper of soup, salad and bread which is provided by volunteers on a rotating basis. The fellowship is fun and it's a great opportunity to taste some new and different soups.

After our meal, we begin a Bible study, again, led by volunteers on a rotating basis. The lessons are printed out in advance and they offer guidance in leading the study and questions for the group to discuss. You may bring a Bible or use one from the shelves in the Guild Room. The study is not too academic or intimidating but offers us a chance to discuss how our lives relate to the scripture verses. There are no right or wrong comments and, if you are new to reading the Bible, this session is a great introduction with friends you can trust.

Friday Night Social

Social Night this week will be at Cathy Hammons house on Mar.8. She will be serving chili, so will need side dishes and desserts. Questions call 570-278-7620.

Montrose Mobile Food Pantry Distribution Tomorrow

The monthly distribution for March takes place tomorrow, Friday, March 8. All volunteers are welcome! The trucks from the Weinberg Foundation arrive in the morning and they are unloaded. The huge bags of vegetables are divided into smaller bags for individual families. Once the food is put into the bags for distribution, there is a break until 3:30 p.m. when volunteers are needed to carry the food to recipients' cars. Please come help for an hour or the day.

Bread Collection Update

As you know, St. Paul's started a second collection on Sundays to provide money to buy bread for the Montrose Mobile Food Pantry once a month. We expected the cost to be about $250 a month and that has been our goal. The monthly distribution takes place on the second Friday of each month. Thank you for your generosity. The recipients of the Food Pantry services are depending on us.

St. Paul's Cycle of Prayer: Richard & Carol Marker; Joel & Suzi Maxey; Karen Miller; Glynis Morgan

Pastoral Emergency: call the parish office during office hours. After hours, you may call Lynne Graham at her home 570-934-1160.

Mark Your Calendars

They are a way off yet but mark your calendars! Two St. Paul's parishioners will be doing classes through the Montrose Area Adult School this spring. At 6:30pm on April 9, 2019, Dan Graham, who writes about and speaks on the Colonial Pennsylvania iron industry, will be discussing the history of cast iron stoves in Pennsylvania including Ben Franklin's famous stove. Additionally, at 6:00pm on May 2, 2019, Master Gardner Nancy Dooling will present "What Kind of Butterfly is That" at the Penn State Extension Office on Chenango Street. Plan to come and enjoy the evening. You have to register through the Adult School.

For those who are ill or have requested our prayers: Margaret Burgh, Brad Darde, Kathy Warriner, Joe & Esther Welden, Charlotte Eckert, Alice Wood, Charlotte Ellis, Esther McLaughlin, Jeanette, Jeanne & Bart Conklin, Steve Kupscznk, Kristina, Richard Marker, Martha Kupscznk, Andrew, Gaby Warriner & Carol Marker.

Our collections for the Trehab Food Bank & Women's Resource Center are the first Sunday of every month. Blessings and thanks for your support and participation.

Our thanksgivings: We give thanks for Elizabeth Smith and others who celebrate their birthdays this week. O God, look with favor, we pray, as Elizabeth & others begin another year. Grant that they may grow in wisdom and grace, and strengthen their trust in your goodness all the days of their life. Amen.

We give thanks for those celebrating wedding anniversaries this week. Grant o God, in your compassion, that those celebrating wedding anniversaries this week may live out the covenant they have made. May they grow in forgiveness, loyalty and love, and come at last to the eternal joys which you have promised through Jesus Christ our Lord; and may the blessing of God, the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit be with them this day and forever. Amen.

St. Paul's Altar Flowers: If you wish to reserve, a Sunday please sign-up on the sheet at the back of the church. Then fill out an Altar Flower Card. Please use one card for each request, enclose your check for $36.00 with the card in the envelope provided, and place it in the offering plate or send it to the parish office prior to the week that you are doing flowers. For those wishing to supply your own flowers please sign up on the sheet at the back of the church and fill out an altar flower card indicating you will do your own flowers. Thank you!

Three Birthday Blessings

It was crowded at the altar last Sunday as three parishioners received birthday blessings from Fr. John. Happy birthday to John Finlon, Carol Lasher and Julian. Long a tradition at St. Paul's, birthdays and anniversaries received a blessing. Shy people pretend to check their shoelaces to see if they are tied when Fr. John asks, but somebody always turns them in.

Pancake Supper

On Tuesday, March 5th, while those in New Orleans were celebrating Mardi Gras, or fat Tuesday, St. Paul's was having its annual Pancake Supper. Eggs, Sausage, Applesauce, juice, coffee and of course, pancakes, were all served. The women of the parish provided desserts. Good food, good conversation and good fellowship abounded. Thanks to everyone who helped make it a successful event.
