Lenten Bible Study Begins

Please join us for any or all parts of each Tuesday evening in Lent. We begin our evening with reading the Stations of the Cross in the sanctuary at 5 p.m. This is a beautiful tradition of reading, quiet reflection, and prayer as we use the carved images of Christ's passion on the church walls to focus our thoughts. At 5:30 p.m we sit down to a simple supper of soup, salad and bread which is provided by volunteers on a rotating basis. The fellowship is fun and it's a great opportunity to taste some new and different soups.

After our meal, we begin a Bible study, again, led by volunteers on a rotating basis. The lessons are printed out in advance and they offer guidance in leading the study and questions for the group to discuss. You may bring a Bible or use one from the shelves in the Guild Room. The study is not too academic or intimidating but offers us a chance to discuss how our lives relate to the scripture verses. There are no right or wrong comments and, if you are new to reading the Bible, this session is a great introduction with friends you can trust.

Dan Graham to Present a Class on History of Wood Stoves

On April 9th, at 6:30 in the Parish Hall, Dan Graham will present a class on the history of Colonial Iron Wood Stoves in Pennsylvania. The class will be given through the Montrose Area Adult School. Cost is $5.00 and you can register at the door. Talk to Dan if you have any questions.

Our collections for the Trehab Food Bank & Women's Resource Center are the First Sunday of every month. Blessings and thanks for your support and participation.

Ever Wondered What Lent Is or What Those Ashes Mean?

Lent is the six-week period leading up to Easter. It is one of the most important times of year for many Christians around the world. Lent is generally seen as a time of solemn preparation for the observance of the death of Jesus on Good Friday and His resurrection on Easter. From its start on Ash Wednesday until its end on Easter Sunday, Lent is a traditional time for fasting and prayer. Many follow a routine of giving something up or adding something positive (such as Bible reading) to their daily life. Just as we carefully prepare for events such as weddings or birthdays in our personal lives, Lent invites us to make our minds and hearts ready for remembering Jesus' life, death and resurrection. Ashes imposed on the forehead (which is optional) symbolize human mortality and a call to repentance, i.e., to live according to God's ways.

Centering Prayer is Alive and Well

Be still and know that I am God. Psalm 46:10
In the fall we made the conscious decision to re-think our practice of holding Centering Prayer in the sanctuary at noon on Wednesdays. Now, in the penitential season of Lent, we hope to encourage folks to join us in prayer at noon on Wednesdays in their homes or places of work. We will come together in the church for prayer at noon on the Wednesday of Holy Week and thereafter on the last Wednesday of the month. The following are four guidelines to Centering Prayer:

1. Choose a sacred word as the symbol of your intention to consent to God's presence and action within.
2. Sitting comfortably with eyes close, settle briefly and silently introduce the sacred word as the symbol of your consent to God's presence and action within.
3. When engaged with your thoughts (including body sensations, feelings, images, and reflections) return ever so gently to the sacred word.

4. At the end of the prayer period (20 minutes is suggested), remain in silence with eyes closed for a couple of minutes.

During your prayer time, think of each "thought interruption" as an opportunity to return to God. On Ash Wednesday, we are invited to the observance of a Holy Lent, by self-examination and repentance; by prayer, fasting, and self-denial; and by reading and meditating on God's holy Word. Centering Prayer offers quiet time to sit with God.

Bread Collection Update

As you know, St. Paul's started a second collection on Sundays to provide money to buy bread for the Montrose Mobile Food Pantry once a month. We expected the cost to be about $250 a month and that has been our goal. The monthly distribution takes place on the second Friday of each month. Thank you for your generosity. The recipients of the Food Pantry services are depending on us.

Church Closures please turn your radio dial to WPEL 96.5 FM. We will announce any closure of our church service on that station.

Thanksgivings: Accept, O Lord, our thanks and praise for all that you have done for us, especially during this past week. Amen.

For those who are ill or have requested our prayers: Margaret Burgh, Brad Darde, Kathy Warriner, Joe & Esther Welden, Charlotte Eckert, Alice Wood, Charlotte Ellis, Esther McLaughlin, Jeanette, Jeanne & Bart Conklin, Steve Kupscznk, Kristina, Richard Marker, Martha Kupscznk, Andrew, Gaby Warriner & Carol Marker.

Our thanksgivings: We give thanks for Christopher Maxey and others who celebrate their birthdays this week. O God, look with favor, we pray, as Christopher & others begin another year. Grant that they may grow in wisdom and grace, and strengthen their trust in your goodness all the days of their life. Amen. We give thanks for those celebrating wedding anniversaries this week. Grant o God, in your compassion, that those celebrating wedding anniversaries this week may live out the covenant they have made. May they grow in forgiveness, loyalty and love, and come at last to the eternal joys which you have promised through Jesus Christ our Lord; and may the blessing of God, the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit be with them this day and forever. Amen.

Bishop Kevin Visits St. Paul's

Last Sunday, Bishop Kevin Nichols honored us with his visitation. We were joined by St. Mark's and Christ Church in welcoming him. Bishop Kevin confirmed three candidates: Patrick Gallagher, Sean Eckert, and Kristina Kinney. They were presented by sponsors Karen Blye-McAbee, Marsha Jones, and Maggie Sock respectively. Each was presented with a Book of Common Prayer/Hymnal signed by the Bishop. We celebrated their confirmation with a festive luncheon following the service. Congratulate the confirmands when you see them.

St. Paul's Parishioner Appears in the Weekender

Our own Sean Eckert appeared in this week's Weekender in the article on the one-year celebration of Keystone Community Resources Montrose. He had some of his art works on display. Sean is a student in the ArtWorks Montrose Program.
