This week's Gospel according to: John

Philip said to Jesus, "Lord, show us the Father, and we will be satisfied." Jesus said to him, "Have I been with you all this time, Philip, and you still do not know me? Whoever has seen me has seen the Father. How can you say, 'Show us the Father'? Do you not believe that I am in the Father and the Father is in me? The words that I say to you I do not speak on my own; but the Father who dwells in me does his works. Believe me that I am in the Father and the Father is in me; but if you do not, then believe me because of the works themselves. Very truly, I tell you, the one who believes in me will also do the works that I do and, in fact, will do greater works than these, because I am going to the Father. I will do whatever you ask in my name, so that the Father may be glorified in the Son. If in my name you ask me for anything, I will do it.

"If you love me, you will keep my commandments. And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Advocate, to be with you forever. This is the Spirit of truth, whom the world cannot receive, because it neither sees him nor knows him. You know him, because he abides with you, and he will be in you."

"I have said these things to you while I am still with you. But the Advocate, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you everything, and remind you of all that I have said to you. Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you. I do not give to you as the world gives. Do not let your hearts be troubled, and do not let them be afraid."

This Months Anniversaries:

No Anniversaries this month!

Our thanksgivings:

We give thanks for those who celebrate their birthdays this week. O God, our times are in your hand: look with favor, we pray, on your servants as they begin another year. Grant that they may grow in wisdom and grace, and strengthen their trust in your goodness all the days of their lives. Amen.

We give thanks for those celebrating wedding anniversaries this week. Grant o God, in your compassion, that those celebrating wedding anniversaries this week may live out the covenant they have made. May they grow in forgiveness, loyalty and love, and come at last to the eternal joys, which you have promised through Jesus Christ our Lord; and may the blessing of God, the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit be with them this day and forever. Amen.

Last Week's Service and Events

Seventh Sunday of Easter, June 1, 2025

Hail, Thou once despised Jesus! Hail, Thou Galilean King!
Thou didst suffer to release us, Thou didst free salvation bring;
Hail, thou universal Savior, Bearer of our sin and shame!
By thy merit we find favor; life is given through Thy name.

The seventh Sunday of Easter, June 1st, 10:00 Holy Eucharist Service was led by the Rev. Susan Treanor. Lynne Graham read announcements and served as lector and Cathy Hammons played the organ. As you know, our live-streamed services can be watched live or any time on YouTube. Just go to our webpage and hit the red button.

The Peirce Benefit is Still On Friday, June 13th

Yes, you heard it here. It's still on. The expenses are still there. After talking to Wanda, we decided to have a "Celebration of Life" for Harry. It's still at the Montrose VFW on June 13th. Dinner still will be served 5:00 to 6:30 and Kelly and Sue Pratt will still perform Irish music at 7:00. We decided to keep the flyers out there the same. Silent auction donations are still needed. Tickets are still $30 or $55 a couple. Lynne at 570-396-7612 still needs to be contacted to make reservations. We still hope that you will join us and will bring as many friends as possible. We plan a really fun night and one that will help Wanda. If you get a chance, get a copy of Wednesday's "Susquehanna Independent" and read Vickie Calby's article on Harry, Wanda and the Benefit.

Kelly and Sue Pratt

Local entertainers, Kelly and Sue Pratt, will be doing the entertaining at the Benefit. They performed at the St. Brigid dinner in 2019 at St. Paul's and were a hit. We are looking forward to having them play and giving us a night of Irish music. Don't miss this night of good entertainment.

Those were the Days

This photo was taken right after Covid when the sleeping bag ministry was just getting off the ground. Here are some of the original sleeping bag makers. Those were the days.

Does Everyone Know the Harringtons?

Meet Sean and Mary Ann Harrington. They live out towards Stevensville and they are some of our newer parishioners. If you see them make sure you introduce yourself.

Funeral for Harry

Harry Peirce's funeral will be at St. Paul's. "There will be funeral services for Harry Peirce as follows: Date: Saturday, June 21st. Location: Saint Paul's Church, Montrose. Visitation 1:00. Funeral service: 2:00. There will a reception after the service with details to follow. Wanda would like this to be more of a celebration of Harry's life, so no black attire required."

Harry's favorite teams were the Philadelphia Eagles and the Philadelphia Phillies, so green and red dress will work fine.

Soup Night

Wednesday, June 4th was the first Wednesday of the month, which of course made it soup day. Soup is made at home by a number of volunteers and brought in and warmed up in our kitchen. We add a salad, applesauce and a cookie, and voila!, it's a meal. Here's a picture of Vera stirring her pot of soup on a stool and St. Paul's kitchen at the end of soup day. Thanks to everyone who supplied soup and who helped distribute it.

EARLY JUNE IN SUSQUEHANNA COUNTY

"In June, as many as a dozen species may burst their buds on a single day. No man can heed all of these anniversaries; no man can ignore all of them." We had a couple of nice days this week between the rain and two of La Rue's steers were enjoying the rare sunny day. Hot weather is coming later in the week. The rhododendron in front of the church is blooming. Three wild flowers made their appearance this week; the dainty False Solomon's Seal in the woods, the Devil's Paint Brush in the fields, and Dame's Rocket, also called fake phlox, along the road sides. It's late spring here in Susquehanna County. Summer coming soon.
